INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

As the internet can be accessed worldwide, if you are visiting the site from outside the UK, your visit will necessarily result in the transfer of information across international borders. By visiting this site and communicating electronically with us you are consenting to these transfers.

SECURITY

If you open more than one browser of the same type whilst using the services listed above on the website, remember to close down all browser windows when you finish.

In fact, if you share a computer with someone else or use a public system (e.g. library, in your office, internet café) then we advise you to shut down the computer. This will help ensure any personal information stored temporarily in the computer's memory is lost.

AVAILABILITY

Whilst we take all reasonable steps to ensure this website is always accessible we will not be held liable if, for any reason, the website is unavailable for any period. We may also have to suspend access to the website for routine or emergency updates and maintenance but we will endeavour to keep any disruption to a minimum. In addition we cannot warrant that this website will be free of viruses or defects of any description and we will not be held responsible for any technical problems you may suffer as a result of your use of this website.

COOKIES

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

Angletwich Financial uses cookies to make a link between you and the information you have provided to our website and therefore provide you with personalised content so that we can give you a better experience when you return.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, although you can choose not to. To ensure you get the best from our website, we advise that users keep cookies active on their machine whilst visiting our website. You can manually disable and enable cookies on your PC. The process will depend on your browser and is usually part of your 'Security Settings'.

For further information about managing and disabling cookies, you can refer to your browser's help section or user guide. Alternatively, the Interactive Advertising Bureau has produced a series of web pages (see www.allaboutcookies.org) which explain to users how cookies work and can be managed.

3RD PARTY LINKS

Please be aware that our site may provide access to other web sites by linking to them. We are not responsible for the data policies (including data protection and cookies), content or security of these linked web sites.

MARKETING

We may contact you for example, with updates to our services.

We may also, subject to your consent, use your personal information to contact you with information about special offers and rewards. Please don't worry; your details won't be shared with companies outside Angletwich Financial for marketing purposes without your consent.

Once you have given us the consent referred to above, from time to time we may contact you by mail, telephone, email, other electronic messaging services (such as text, voice, sound or image messages including using automated calling systems) or fax with information about our products and services.

If you're already receiving information from us then don't worry, you don't need to do anything. We'll assume that you're happy to continue receiving information unless we hear from you.

In the unlikely event you no longer wish to receive such information from us, please let us know by emailing us at info@angletwichfinancial.co.uk.

NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES

We may update this policy from time to time as our information practices are modified or changed. If we make any material changes to this policy that affects your personal information, we will notify you by emailing the e-mail address specified in your account or by means of a notice on this Site prior to the change. We encourage you to periodically review this page for the latest information on our privacy practices.
